Table of Contents for Step Eleven in A.A.'s 12 Steps & 12 Traditions book:

Meditation and prayer main channels to Higher Power. Connection between self-examination and meditation and prayer. An unshakable foundation for life. How shall we meditate? Meditation has no boundaries. An individual adventure. First result is emotional balance.

What about prayer? Daily petitions for understanding of God's will and grace to carry it out. Actual results of prayer are beyond question. Rewards of meditation and prayer.

  - a. Leave politics outside of meetings
  - b. When meeting in person, follow State of Oregon COVID requirements: Use masks, social distancing, and monitor group size. (Increasingly, folks have mentioned that they have gone to a meeting but didn't stay because people weren't wearing masks.)
4. An ad hoc committee has taken a hard look at improving the way elections are referenced in the By-laws. Improvements are being suggested so the definition of who votes is sharper, and the wording in general is clearer, consistent, and in line with actual practice. Please take a close look at the recommendations, distributed at the October Intergroup Business Meeting Vote to approve/not approve in November.

Farewell to Martha S.

Martha S. will be missed dearly by many. She was a 7AM meeting regular, LTD bus rider, and always had a supportive word for the newcomer. Many would recognize her knitting and bag full of yarn.

Martha painted, collected rocks, made jewelry, bags and hats. She participated in Oregon Area service and loved to travel her home state. Martha was a humble scholar, biologist, storyteller and social commentator.

Although retired, Martha continued to be very active in her community of Eugene, Oregon, where she was born and lived most of her life. May her example and spirit live on.
